When Nature meets Luxury

Testa Maura have been created in 2008 by Xavier Torre impassioned by his native Corsica, that amazing Mediterranean french island. His expertise in Contemporary Art has lead him across continents but he always kept love with the island of his birth and wanted to express his nostalgia of corsican feelings.

Primu Spiritu is a landscapes's pictures as you can find in the Oriental plain, along the pathways of the « Cretes des sanguinaires » or throughout the Castanicca mountains. From the lighter to the heavier fragrance, the candles range, revolutionary as in its spirit as in its conception, affect all the island biodiversity. Many channels are involved (farmers, shepherds) in collecting raw materials with environment concern. From the original plant to the final box, this way of thinking is all together creative, commercial and eco-aware issues.

Testa Maura use a very personnal olfative piano with new perfumes notes 100% organics, back to the rules of the french traditionnal perfumery, an artistic reflexion on ingredients and composition.

It is the inspiration of Bucolica collection : eaux de parfum, richer, deeper and wilder. These new accords move the trends and let a very specific trail for people who want to be unique and have a real wish to live in harmony with earth.

And for those who travel all over the world to find the loose heaven, Capo di Feno. A line for the body based on Immortelle organic essential oil, to share these tremendous momento, layed along the beach when maritime's emanations melt into the perfumes of the yellow flowers burned by the hot daily sun, as the original sin.

ALERIA

In the fields of Aleria, covered with orchards where oranges, mandarins, bergamots and citrons grow, one cannot escape the fragrance of the still for the distilling of the citrus fruits. L'Eau de Parfum Aleria is an ode to this tradition, and particularly to the fragrance of the distillation of the delicious liquors, with notes of lemon which are brightened up here by myrte and beeswax.

AQUA DI CASTA

The chestnut trees of Castagniccia have brought up generations of Corsican highlanders. This Chestnut water with, the warmth of santal, vetiver and cedar wood, and the strength of the black pepper associated to ginger, allows us to discover the freshness of chestnut flour.

Olfactives poetries, these eaux de parfums have been elaborated following the best rules of the classical french perfumery, a new palette of olfactive notes to discover.

BUCOLICA Collection

Eaux de Parfum, based on essentials organic oils. Support alcool issued from organic farming.

LORIANI

The village of Xavier Torre's family, a peaceful haven lost in the heart of the Corsican montains, has inspired this modern version of the original Lavander Vanilla. This harmony of wild lavender, orange flower and pure vanilla bean, transports us to the roots of the « Grande Parfumerie » for your sensual pleasure.

MIA MURZA

The Everlasting, this yellow, sun-filled wild flower, grows in arid and inaccessible locations in the mountains and seashores. They emit a deep and dense odour, which envelops the sheperds and walkers. In this untamable material, Mia Murza has kept the animality in the heart, for an Eau de Parfum captivating and unique.

CARTICASI

In the purest of Corsican traditions, the village of the Mother is sacred. It is in this place that was born that amazing perfume, both stunning and sensual which reveals itself on the skin as a love potion; the divine lentiscus, the galbanum and the rose for an explosif olfactive match.
